

Develop Literacy Skills

Build Students' Confidence

Encourage creative and critical thinking

Through a Glass Darkly, a research project at the University of St Andrews, is offering loan boxes for classrooms focusing on teaching drama and literacy through archaeology.

What comes in the box?

- 4-5 Replica Objects
- A lesson plan and follow-up activities
- Context cards and digital resources
- Scent cubes and feely bag (Literacy box only)

Interacting with objects will empower students to be active participants and motivated learners.

"I saw a huge boost of confidence and was surprised by the imagination they had in the drama workshop" ~P5/6 teacher

"The children are all happy to share their ideas and feel encouraged to do so even if others have different ideas." ~Afterschool Teacher

Curriculum for Excellence Outcomes

Drama: HWB2-19a, LIT2-04a, LIT2-07a, LIT2-28a, LIT2-29a

Literacy: HWB2-19a, LIT2-04a, LIT2-07a, EXA2-01A, exa2-12A, exa2-13A

Pick-up/Drop-off at Swallowgate, School of Classics, University of St Andrews KY16 9BA

To borrow a loan box or with any enquiries, please contact lrn5@st-andrews.ac.uk.